

CLASSROOM SUPPORT FOR TEACHERS SINCE 1987

Email delivery

Since 1987, these UpDate magazines have been a valuable resource for teachers. Since 2007, the UpDates have been distributed by email, allowing schools and teachers to access multiple quantities of each edition. This process has aided delivery time and further assisted teachers in the classroom. This form of distribution will continue in 2012.

Detailed topics for 2012 including authors details, will be available in February 2012

- ◆ financial management
- ◆ globalisation and business development
- ◆ business ethics and social responsibility

Legaldate

Written for teachers and students of Legal Studies and senior secondary law-related subjects. The resource contains extended articles, prepared by experienced authors and commentators, focusing on a range of relevant and interesting topics. Each issue contains a legal update and a current newspaper article with related questions.

The articles featured in Legaldate provide discussion and analysis of:

- ◆ contemporary legal issues
- ◆ new directions and changes in the law
- ◆ case studies
- ◆ the operation of the legal system

Ecodate

A classroom resource that provides in-depth analysis of the key issues and policies investigated in Year 11 and Year 12 economics courses.

Written by experienced authors and commentators for economics teachers and students, the focus of articles is the Australian economy with some discussion of other countries and the operation of the global economy. Articles are illustrated with relevant figures/diagrams and current data. A regular MediaWatch segment monitors recent news items on controversial issues in economics.

Topics featured in Ecodate relate to:

- ◆ economic management policy
- ◆ economic growth
- ◆ inflation
- ◆ unemployment
- ◆ environmental sustainability
- ◆ distribution of income
